Fun Office Activities

The office doesn't always have to be a super-serious place. Fun activities can bring teams closer and drive more motivation at work. Why not try a few fun office activities, after all they say a happy employee is a productive employee...

1. Show and Tell

Give each person some time to share whatever is important to them. It could be about a work achievement, an idea or something about their cat. Alternatively, encourage teams or employees to share work achievements about each other. Make it a weekly or daily thing.

2. Play 2 Truths and a Lie

Want to get to know your colleagues better? Play the game 2 truths and a lie.

Each person will tell two truths about themselves and one lie. It's up to the rest of the team to guess which are the truths and which is the lie.

3. Cook-off

Divide the office in half and put the words “cook” and “judge” on pieces of paper.

Let everyone draw from a hat. Use the office kitchen for the cooks to cook up some snacks and let the judges do the tasting and judging.

Stand a chance to win your share of R300 000
