

Re a leboga!

Hi Office National Family Member

Re a leboga go wena goba karolo ya lelapa la rona mo Office National.

Can you believe this is already the 9th letter in the “Phrase Generator” competition? You could win R20 000 in cash by collecting all 10 letters to match the secret phrase.

Don't forget that when you purchase from us you are contributing to the upliftment of your local community. This is because Office National supports local businesses and communities.

Think. Shop. Support Local with Office National

Annoying Office Jargon

Every so often, studies are conducted into which corporate or office buzzwords are considered the most annoying. Below are some of the most cringeworthy words from 2021...

1. Reinvent the wheel

How it is used: “Let's not reinvent the wheel here.”

What it means: “Let's not waste time redoing something which is already working or been done successfully.”

2. Low-hanging fruit

How it is used: “Let's go after the low-hanging fruit.”

What it means: “Let's focus on the easy targets/objectives that will give good, quick results.”

3. Drill down

How it is used: “I suggest doing a drill down to get the information we need.”

What it means: “I suggest looking at this in more detail to get the information we need.”

ON Promotion

STABILO - Swing Cool Highlighter

SC2706

R 96,00

Shop Now

SCHNEIDER - MAXX 290/293 Whiteboard / flipchart Markers

TLDASCH12994

R 54,00

Shop Now

LUXOR - 650 Whiteboard Marker

INLUX3301

R 7,50

Shop Now

STABILO - Highlighter

SC7042

R 70,00

Shop Now

Do you need a reminder to come back tomorrow for the last letter in the “Phrase Generator” competition? We didn't think so :)

See you again tomorrow!
The Office National Team